

BOURNEMOUTH BEACH LODGES

News Update

November 2nd 2017

Christmas at the Seaside.

Bournemouth's newest waterside accommodation is open at Christmas and New Year. The Beach Lodges offer a great alternative venue for this year's festive period, offering invigorating beach walks, a buzzing town centre complete with a new look Christmas Market, Ice Rink and varied seasonal events, fantastic shopping, a wide selection of bars and restaurants and nearby areas of natural beauty such as the New Forest and The Purbecks.

The fifteen Lodges overlooking the soft golden sands of Bournemouth beach are heated, have a wood south-facing deck, can sleep up to four people, have their own shower, toilet, WiFi, TV and an extensively equipped kitchen with a hob and microwave. A number of the Lodges are dog friendly and all are perfect for couples, families and groups of friends alike.

Guests can have their Festive Lodge decorated pre-arrival, will be supplied with a full list of local places for Christmas lunch such as Urban Beach or The Brewhouse & Kitchen. Naturally a winter beach BBQ could also be fun.

A seven night Christmas at the Bournemouth Beach Lodges from Friday 22nd December will cost £475.
